David Szerlip and Associates joins Bollinger, Inc.

Short Hills, NJ – (July 19, 2010) Bollinger, Inc. announces the acquisition of David Szerlip and Associates of Berkeley Heights, NJ.

The firm specializes exclusively in property and casualty insurance programs for nonprofit organizations, ranging from large international nonprofits to small start-ups. David Szerlip will continue with Bollinger and serve as a Senior Vice President. He and his staff will be relocating to Bollinger's Short Hills location later this month.

"While our name will change, our customers will receive the same excellent customer service, along with a broader selection of insurance products and markets", said Szerlip. "We strongly believe that the resources realized from this new relationship will greatly benefit our clients."

"We are excited to welcome David Szerlip and his staff to our organization," said Jack Windolf, Chairman and CEO of Bollinger. "Their reputation and expertise in insuring nonprofit organizations will help solidify Bollinger's growing presence in this specialty area."
